

Media round-up: 5th January 2024

Our work in the news

- Women's Aid survivor ambassador, Natalie Curtis and Women's Aid CEO, Farah Nazeer interviewed for BBC Radio 4 – Fixing Britain with Louise Casey: Baroness Casey examines the issue of violence against women – Natalie: "Controlling and coercive behaviour is a really difficult subject, it sits at the heart of domestic abuse and there's so many elements of it and unfortunately I experienced all elements...". Farah: "You can put legislation in place, you can put as many plans as you like but actually you have to put your money where your mouth is, and that is where the systems continue to fall down..."

Social Media Update

Twitter:

- Letter to James Cleverly on plans to curb net migration (47 likes, 22 retweets, 4,397 impressions)
- Farah and Natalie on BBC Radio 4 (23 likes, 10 retweets, 3,104 impressions)

Instagram:

- Farah and Natalie on BBC Radio 4 (246 likes, 6 comments, 5,581 accounts reached)

Facebook:

- Farah and Natalie on BBC Radio 4 (26 likes, 2 comments, 2,041 people reached)