- Col. A. W. Mayo Robson has been appointed a Companion of the Order of the Bath for distinguished service in the field.
- Lieut.-Col. A. E. L. Wear has been mentioned in despatches and awarded the Order of St. Michael and St. George.
- Lieut.-Col. A. Plugge has been awarded the Order of St. Michael and St. George.
- Lieut.-Col. E. A. Hirst has been appointed Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.
- Lieut.-Col. F. H. Nugent has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order.

THE FOLLOWING HAVE RECEIVED MILITARY DISTINCTION.

- Sergeant P. H. Bagenal has been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal.
- 2nd Lieut. Eric Fitzwater Wilkinson was awarded the Military Cross—
 "For conspicuous gallantry and coolness on July 15th, 1915, near St. Julien, in assisting to carry a wounded soldier for a distance of 120 yards under circumstances of great danger and difficulty."
- 2nd Lieut. G. S. Shannon has been mentioned in despatches and awarded the Military Cross after his death.
- Lieut. G. B. Howarth has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For conspicuous gallantry. During an attack, when all communications were cut, he volunteered and went to the infantry head-quarters under very heavy shell fire, thereby maintaining communication while the wires were being repaired."
- 2nd Lieut. J. L. Jameson has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When his Captain was injured early in the day he took command, and set a fine example to his men. Although himself suffering considerably, he stuck to his work, and at one time carried bombs to a bombing party, going across the open to do so."
- 2nd Lieut. S. E. Pierce has been awarded the Military Cross after his death—
 "For conspicuous gallantry. When the enemy commenced their attack he roused his company and opened fire almost immediately. He was thrown down and wounded in several places by the explosion of a trench mortar shell, but he rallied his men, distributed grenades, and stuck to his duty till all immediate danger was over."
- 2nd Lieut. A. A. Kerr has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For gallant conduct and devotion to duty when acting as forward observing officer. Under very heavy fire he made repeated attempts to lay his wire up to the captured position."
- 2nd Lieut. J. R. Bellerby has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For conspicuous gallantry and skill in covering a detachment of infantry and machine-guns during retirement. He was subjected to heavy fire and continuous bomb attacks. He has shown the utmost devotion to duty."
- 2nd Lieut. Wilson Ratcliff has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For gallantry and devotion to duty during an enemy counter-attack on captured trenches. Though wounded, he went forward to his guns and reorganised his teams, which were losing heavily. He acted as one of the team for a gun, and continued, though wounded, until the attack was repulsed."
- Lieut. G. N. Stockdale has been awarded the Military Cross—
 "For conspicuous courage and ability in the handling of his company in attack, and in consolidating his position under heavy machine-gun and rifle fire. He has on all occasions shown himself to be a capable and brave leader."
- Capt. H. R. Knowles* has been awarded the Military Cross.
- Capt. J. Milner* " " "
